

Needs Assessment

What is your organization currently doing that you would like to increase, replicate, or expand?

What problems or challenges is your organization currently experiencing?

What specific skills and resources would your organization need to meet its challenges? To fulfill your dreams?

What items have you had on your “to do” list or “vision board” that you have not yet been able to address or create?

With what could your organization utilize a consultant or specialist to help you – now and in the future – as you work to fulfill your vision and mission?

Based on the answers above, what are three direct-service, skills-based, or leadership positions that would be an asset to you and your organization?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
